A. Background

Rossmoor provides a wide range of facilities, allowing residents to participate in social, recreational, and fitness activities; communicate inside and outside the community; and connect to regional utilities.

The GRF has three swimming pool facilities, generally open seven days a week, with family-swim open at Hillside Pool for at least two hours six days a week. The Del Valle pool, extensively renovated in 2006-2007, is enclosed and provides lap facilities as well as a warm-water area. The Dollar and Hillside pool facilities were renovated in 2001-2002 and 2009, respectively.
The fitness center, renovated in 2001, offers approximately 120 classes per week, cardiovascular equipment, weight machines, and fitness trainers working with individuals and groups.

Rossmoor’s two golf courses, Creekside and Dollar Ranch, cover 150 acres and represent two different types of course. The Dollar Ranch course is 18 holes and spread out over a hilly area. The Creekside course is nine holes and more easily walkable than Dollar Ranch. Both courses have been renovated per the 1997 Golf Course Master Plan with satellite-controlled sprinklers re-using water on-site. Some portions of the courses, including restroom facilities, remain unrenovated. There are four resident golf clubs. The golf courses provide guest access during specific hours, host tournaments, and rent out golf cars.

There are five clubhouses: Gateway, Dollar, Del Valle, Hillside and Creekside. Venue reservations within clubhouses and other GRF locations are handled by GRF. In the case of all clubhouses, demand is high for rooms with kitchen space. Creekside facilities include a social building with meeting rooms, a pro shop, and a restaurant kitchen/bar, a building for Rossmoor News, the TV channel, Cart Barn, and a public safety and maintenance building. In addition to these facilities, two more buildings are planned for the future: a new golf pro shop and an events center with a stage, and would include additional parking.

Other recreation facilities include bocce courts, tennis courts, lawn bowling greens, a temporary table tennis building, arts and crafts rooms, and a pool/billiard room. In addition to these facilities, Rossmoor has seven parks, several equipped with picnic areas. The dog park is adjacent to the Del Valle Clubhouse parking lot.

Rossmoor’s two libraries are located at Gateway Clubhouse and Dollar Clubhouse. Neither library has computerized files and the Dollar Clubhouse library uses an “honor system” for checking out books. The Gateway library has space constraints.

Utility providers include East Bay Municipal Utility District (EBMUD) for water service, Pacific Gas & Electric (PG&E) for gas and electric service, Central Contra Costa Sanitary District for sewer, AT&T and Comcast for land line phone services, Allied Waste and Valley Waste Management for waste removal, and Comcast for cable. Storm drains flow to Tice Creek and are provided by GRF or the Mutuals, and sidewalks and streets are owned and maintained by the GRF while entries are owned and maintained by the Mutuals. Cable TV service is included in the monthly GRF Coupon and limited wireless network access is provided by GRF in all clubhouses, except Dollar. Cell phone service is not under GRF jurisdiction, however GRF collaborates with cell phone companies on placement of towers.

Note that information regarding facility needs submitted by the following Rossmoor committees, clubs, and organizations is included in Appendix G: Community Emergency Response Team, Drama Association, GRF Fitness Center Advisory Committee, Garden Club, GRF Golf Advisory Committee, Pickle Ball Club, Tennis Club, and Table Tennis Club. Long Range Planning Task Force suggestions for a Facilities Master Plan are included in Appendix H.
