A regular meeting of the Golf Course Marshals' Subcommittee (GCMS) was convened by the Chairman, Dickey Nitta, at 8:30 a.m. on Friday, November 13, 2020, via Zoom webinar.

Present, in addition to the Chairman, were Del Poirier, Jerry Weinstein, Margo Dutton, Richard Fuller, Jay Kutler, Mary Hufford, Michael Weisenberg, Michael Wener, and Sarah Buehrer. Also in attendance was Mark Heptig, Director of Golf. Marva Nielsen was absent.

Attendance

There being no corrections, the report of the Subcommittee's regular meeting of January 10, 2020, was approved as written, by unanimous consent.

Approval of Report- 1/10/2020

In his report, the Chairman thanked the Marshals for their hard work and volunteering to use their own carts. He noted that a new Marshal sign will be available for use.

Chairman's Report

There were no correspondence and announcements.

There were no Resident Forum speakers.

Residents' Forum Marshals Report

During the Marshals reports, it was noted that some handicapped parking signs were missing on both courses. It was recommended that the signs not be placed in the middle of the approach to the greens. The Marshals agreed to watch for carts driving on the left side of the #8 fairway to the #9 tee box area.

There was no Unfinished Business.

During New Business, Mr. Heptig reported that the new fleet of rental carts should arrive November 23, 2020, so he expects there to be a cart available for Marshals' use soon. It was noted that Marshals should send their requests for name badges to the Chairman.

New Business

The next regular meeting of the Committee is to be determined.

Next Mtg. TBD

There being no further business to come before the Subcommittee, the meeting was adjourned at 8:55 a.m.
